

LANGHORNE MAN GIVEN A PAROLE BY JUDGE KELLER

Lester Eisenhuth, 30, Was Convicted of Assault and Battery Last Sept.

FREED TO AID FAMILY

Milton Garrison, 26, of Bristol, Given Parole and Fines Are Remitted

DOYLESTOWN, Jan. 24—Lester Eisenhuth, 30, of Langhorne, was granted a parole Tuesday from the Bucks County Prison by President Judge Hiram H. Keller.

He was sentenced on Sept. 19, 1946, to serve not less than 9 or more than 23 months in the County Prison, for assault and battery with intent to ravish. The costs, amounting to $122.25, were remitted and the defendant was released to support his wife and two children, a son and a daughter.

Milton Garrison, 26, of Bristol, who was sentenced in November, 1946, to serve two months to 23 months in the County Prison, was also granted a parole, and the costs and fine amounting to $68.20 were remitted. The defendant was charged with burglary, including tools from a garage near Langhorne.

In the case of Clarence Walls, near Trevoise, charged with desecration and non-support, Judge Keller terminated a support order of $15 for the defendant's wife, Marie E.
Walls and a minor child.

Elmer T. LeFever, Langhorne RD., who was committed to prison for contempt of court last week, was released after he agreed to pay $20 a week for the support of his wife.

Morrisville Pupils Not Regular Cafeteria Patrons

MORRISVILLE, Jan. 24—A total of 3,501 meals were served in Morrisville high school cafeteria during the first four months of this term.
The total for September was 603; October, 1171; November, 934; and December, 793.

Although the cafeteria has been in operation for over four months, it is stated that students do not take advantage of the service to the extent the faculty members do.

Of the 20 teachers in the high school, 14 eat at the cafeteria every day, even though the cost of the same meals is greater to the teachers.
There are 510 pupils in the high school and 292 at the Wm. E.
Case school, yet only an average of 40 pupils per day purchase meals at the cafeteria, it is announced by school officials.

The cafeteria is not a money-making proposition although the school authorities desire that it should "break even". The menu is changed daily. It is designed to furnish the pupils with food requirements that their growing bodies need. Milk is served with every meal although the cost to the school is 75% greater now than it was last year.

The meals are prepared by Mrs.
Altmeier who is the only one of the cafeteria staff receiving a regular salary. Mrs. Carter and John Gun-tar, of the high school faculty, along with several pupils give their services.

A SUMMARY OF THE NEWS

The Government intervened yesterday in the Mount Clemens original portal-pay suit and urged that unless further hearings disclosed substantial amounts of overtime involved the case be thrown out as against the public interest. A Treasury official said that the Government might bear as much as 43 per cent of the damages involved through income tax refunds.

Hearings on labor bills were opened by the Senate Labor and Welfare Committee.

Top officials of the United Automobile Workers rejected the company's proposal to end the 271-day Allis-Chalmers strike. The union pinned its hopes on winning a collective bargaining election Sunday.

Rent controls must be continued, but the responsibility now rests with Congress, President Truman said.

The President gave a free hand in running the State Department to Secretary Marshall, who made his first appointment, naming John E.
Pearlman Deputy Assistant Secretary of State for Administration.

Inside Your Congress

Washington Comment

—by—

SAMUEL B. PETTINGILL
"The Gentleman from Indiana"

According to figures given to Congressman Buffett of Nebraska, the total number on the federal payroll on June 30th last, was 16,167,856! This does not include those drawing unemployment compensation. This may help to explain a Presidential budget which will cost the average family $1,000 in taxes this coming year. Mr. Truman does not see any possibility of reducing it. Do you? Senator Byrd says, "We have not scratched the surface on the opportunity for retrenchment in every single agency of government."

A three-star general says a billion or two could be saved on national defense if we unify the Army and Navy, as President Truman recommends. This one saving would amount to $30 to $60 per family.

It is some commentary on the irresponsible action of the majority of the Supreme Court of the United States in the "portal to portal" cases, that their decision has turned the stomachs of fifteen A. F. of L. unions, with 1,500,000 members. Mr.
John P. Frey, president of the A. F. of L. Metal Trades Council, says that these billions of dollars of law suits let loose by the Supreme Court are "a definite violation of the good faith and integrity of collective bargaining. . . . Our trade unions have no assets more valuable than their agreements with employers, and the integrity which is involved."

Well said, Mr. Frey. If there were more like you, this country would be better off.

In view of the tremendous amount of taxes which would be lost by the Treasury if the "portal to portal" suits are upheld, Senators Wiley of Wisconsin and Capehart of Indiana say Congress cannot hope to reduce taxes until these stale claims are outlawed.

BRISTOL PROCESSING EXPECTS TO REOPEN

Will Cease Operations Tonight For All But a Skeleton Crew

EMPLOYED ABOUT 800

One of Bristol's industries, Bristol Processing Corporation, will close tonight, according to an announcement made today by an official of the company, with only a skeleton crew being retained.

In a statement issued today through the manager, the public is thus informed:

"The sponsoring company of the Bristol Processing Corporation is in process of reorganization and while this corporation is not involved, it however becomes necessary to close the plant while this process in reorganization is in progress. The company expects to open the plant as soon as possible."

At its peak the Bristol Processing Corporation, at its plant on Beaver street, employed approximately 800 men and women, according to the manager.

Questioned about the future of this industry locally, Mr. Wester stated: "Our intention is to open.
Whether it will be in two weeks, two months or longer we cannot tell."

Elizabeth, England's future queen, looks over the latest in crowns, brims and trimmings at a London millinery preview. The off-the-face bonnet shown above is one of Designer Tharrup's creations. Touched off with a generous silver bow, it was considered a startling change from the customary conservative headdress of the royal family. She and her sister will soon start on a royal tour of South Africa. (International)

MORTICIAN RELATES HIS WAR EXPERIENCE

Kimbel Faust, Hulmeville, Is Speaker at Session of The Bristol Rotary Club

WAS WITH "MEDICS"

The story of a "Medic's Experiences in the Orient" was related to Bristol Rotarians yesterday afternoon at the Elks' Home when Kim-bel Faust, Hulmeville mortician, told of some of his experiences during four years in the armed forces during World War II.

Faust, whose father, the late Samuel K. Faust, was instrumental in organizing the Bensalem Rotary Club, served as a member of a portable surgical unit which provided emergency surgery on the front lines under gunfire.

After spending some time in India, Faust's unit was flown over the Himalaya Mountains into the western sector of China. The trip was made over enemy-held territory and the planes travelled at 20,000 feet, which necessitated the men wearing oxygen masks.

A graphic description of the Burma Road, the back door to China, was given by Faust, who related that the construction was done by hand with Chinese coolie labor.
Faust also depicted conditions found in the western sector of China, pointing out that this section is highly uncivilized with many small villages and mountain tribes making up the population.

"Filth and ignorance predominated everywhere," Faust said when he told of the poor living conditions of the peoples in this section.

A brief history of Buddhism, the main religion in China and Burma, was given by the speaker. At the conclusion of his talk Faust displayed some souvenirs which he brought back from China.

dan B. Metz, the Exchange Club members, meeting at the Elks Home last evening, were entertained by the showing of a picture entitled "Magazine Magic."

The film, presented through the Co., was in color and depicted in a dramatic and comprehensive fashion the entire operation of publishing a modern magazine from forest to Reveal New French Program for Germany

Paris—An elaborate French program for the future government of Germany—including establishment of a Federal Union and creation of central economic controls—was revealed today by the Quai d'Orsay.

Confirming International News Service reports to this effect, a spokesman for the French Foreign Ministry said the proposal has been presented formally to Washington, London and Moscow.

It was hoped that the French plan would lay the groundwork for settling the German treaty problems at the forthcoming foreign ministers meeting in Moscow. The French proposal, divided into two periods, was contained in two documents covering provisional organization during continuance of the Allied occupation and, secondly, providing for a permanent or constitutional government.

as a specialist in rural education.

The Bucks County Board of School was requested by the War Depart-

MOVIE RECIPROCITY

Sir Stafford Cripps, the Laborite president of the British Board of Trade, in a speech the other day touched on a subject that is a source of constant irritation to the British. This is the fact that the English market is swamped with motion pictures made in Hollywood, while only a handful of British-made films are shown on this side of the Atlantic.
American films drain $100,000-000 from Britain's slim dollar balance, he said.

If Hollywood doesn't send better pictures to the British market and unless British films receive reciprocal distribution in the United States, Sir Stafford warned, Britain may restrict film imports. What innovation British movie houses would adopt to attract customers in that event he didn't reveal.

There are various reasons for the conditions of which Britishers complain which they might as well be frank enough to recognize. If their country is flooded with Hollywood-made films it is because the British public likes these motion pictures and the output of the American film industry is far greater than that of the British studios. Under these circumstances it would hardly be fair to insist that one British film be shown in the United States for every American film imported into England.

Before British films can become popular in American cinema palaces, it will be necessary that the British film industry turn out a product that will appeal to American audiences.

STEP BY STEP

Science is still a long way from solving the mystery of what causes infantile paralysis. But research into origin and cure of the dread disease has finally begun to produce some encouraging results.

During the past few days two sets of scientists have issued cautious announcements of skim-mishes won in their battle with poliomyelitis. Two Stanford University scientists have succeeded in isolating a protein particle, less than two-billionths of an inch in diameter, which proved to be 80 to 95 per cent pure virus—the closest that anyone has come.

Meanwhile three Chicago scientists have developed a method for infecting white mice directly with polio virus from humans.
The importance of this latter discovery is that it will vastly speed up and reduce the cost of research in the disease.

Neither of these two announcements promise an immediate preventive or cure. They are merely two more advances in the step by step progress toward the goal of eliminating the threat of infantile paralysis.

Having received 80,000 tons of American food in December, it should be hard to convince the German people there is no Santa Claus.

Molotov, representing the nation with the world's largest armed forces, continues to press for disarmament.

I note with anguish the "labor pains" of the socialist government of Great Britain. Having "nationalized" transportation, it now has a transport strike on its hands and has called out the troops. The truck drivers who work for the government don't like the soldiers who work for the government. They call the soldiers "black legs". Well, if a labor government doesn't please labor, maybe our domestic Attilas will have trouble bamboozling American working men on the virtues of a socialistic government on this side of the Atlantic.

We have invited ourselves in on the control of the Dardanelles which has been a bone of contention between Russia and the British Empire for two centuries. We have taken sides with Britain and against Russia. Russia retorts in pleasant tones by demanding the international-ization of the Panama and Suez Canals.

Perhaps this is what ex-Vice President Wallace means when he says Russia wants to meet us halfway! Would we ever agree to remove our own defenses from the Canal which we built and which ties together our Atlantic and Pacific seaboard?

A Federal Court has just ruled that if a member of one union which has a collective bargaining contract prefers another union and a third others to join him, the first union must fire him from his job. Will he now join in the chorus, "Sweet land of Liberty, of thee I sing?"

A Digest of Things Political Occurring At Harrisburg

By International News Service

HARRISBURG, Jan. 24 (INS)— Nearly every assemblyman has his own "pet bill" designed to do something for "the folks back home" and many sponsor legislation for statewide or local organizations. The State Legislative Reference Bureau has drafted more than 300 measures. During regular sessions the number of proposals usually is around 2000. In past years, many legislators have submitted identical measures and it is up to committees to decide which one will be reported for floor consideration.

Reaction of some Democratic leaders has been favorable to President Truman's appointment of Gen.
George C. Marshall, formerly of Uniontown, as Secretary of State, succeeding James F. Byrnes. Some predicted that Marshall would be an "ideal" candidate for the Democratic Presidential nomination in 1948 should President Truman decline to seek another term. A few officials believe that Pennsylvania's Democratic delegation may spearhead a drive for Marshall should the President announce he was not a candidate. Some others believe that Marshall would make a fine running mate for Truman.

Secretary of Internal Affairs William S. Livengood, Jr., has commended Wyoming's borough officials for issuing a report to residents covering all municipal activity. "Such reports are both informative and inspirational," Livengood said in the Department's monthly bulletin. "There should be more of them. If citizens knew the background of the community in which they live, they would have a better understanding of the problems with which their local officials are faced, and the spirit of co-operation, so necessary for successful administration, would be encouraged." Wyomissing is located in Berks County.

A supplement to the final message of former Governor Edward Martin to the General Assembly has been issued at the State Capitol and contains reports of the various departments, boards and commissions.
The report submitted by State Police Commissioner C. M. Wilhelm showed that during the four years Martin was in office troopers made 152,860 arrests, 91 per cent of which resulted in convictions and fines approximating $1,854,000. Wilhelm said there were 1485 troopers on duty. The force is limited to 1600 by law. "The force is equipped and ready to meet any emergency," he added. "This has been demonstrated during flood and other disasters requiring action beyond the scope of routine police duties."

THIRD WARD FIVE GETS FIRMER GRIP ON THIRD PLACE

Celtics Lose by the Score of 36 to 28 in Youth League Game

PLAY GOOD BALL

Delia's Boys Stage An Uprising and De Paul Scores Three Fielders

The Third Ward Eagles strengthened its grip on third place in the Bristol Youth League by whipping the fading Celtics team, 36-28, last night in the nightcap on the Mutual Aid floor.

The Third Ward basketballers played heads-up ball and took advantage of the many wild shots of the Celtics to take possession of the ball most of the time. The Celtics missed many shots that ordinarily should have been converted into field goals.

In the last session, Vito Delia's boys staged an uprising and with the Warders having a 29-14 lead, Joe DePaul scored three fielders in quick order and when Wallick followed with a double-decker, the Eagles' lead was cut down to 7 points. However, the Third Ward had braced themselves and held their edge the remainder of the game.

Donnelly was high for the Warders with 15 points while DePaul had eight points for the Celtics.

PROFY TEAM TO OPPOSE ROHM & HAAS QUINTET

The unbeaten Profy team will face its sternest test of the first round of the Bristol Basketball League tonight when it meets the Rohm & Haas team on the latter's floor at Maple Beach. In the first tilt of the night, starting at 7:30 o'clock, St. Ann's stacks up against the Badenhausen quintet in the battle for sixth place and deadlock for fifth position.

The Profytes, who have beaten every team in the circuit except the chemical mixers, will be weakened by the absence of two of its players. "Johnny" Slaven, brilliant forward and one of the leading scorers of the league, coaches the Bensalem High team, while Gus Carnvale is working on a night shift.

The Rohm & Haas team is expected to have full strength on the floor, including the Carnvale brothers, Pat and Warren. The "Saints" and "Badies" are expected to stick to their same line-ups, although "Freddie" Barbeta, who injured his leg, will be out of the St. Ann's line-up for the remainder of the season.

To the Public
we say
"THANK YOU
SINCERELY"

EARLY WEDNESDAY MORNING, fire seriously damaged Philadelphia Electric's gas plant at West Conshohocken. This plant pumps approximately 40% of the gas used by the Philadelphia suburban area, therefore as a result of the fire, pressure was low in many sections and some areas were entirely without gas.

We deeply regret this inconvenience to our customers and wish to take this opportunity of thanking them for the splendid cooperation they provided. In all suburban sections the public responded promptly to our radio and newspaper warnings. They did the right thing at the right time and they further helped by passing the word along to neighbors, so that practically everyone was aware of what was taking place and what to do.

Gas pressure began improving within a few hours after the fire was extinguished, and now it is virtually back to normal. In areas where the service was turned off completely, most of the consumers had gas before midnight. This speedy resumption of service would not have been possible without public cooperation.

No personal negligence was involved in this unfortunate fire. It was caused by the rupture of a high pressure gas main in the compressor building. This released gas which speedily caught fire and damaged one section of the plant. Prompt action prevented more serious consequences, just as prompt action on the part of hundreds of our employees, working without letup, restored service in much less time than we had hoped possible.

Again, may we thank you for the part you so splendidly played.

"The watchword for 1947 for farmers is efficient and economic production. It should be the fullest production with a maximum efficiency," said Mr. Patton.

"Getting farm business ready for tomorrow, Mr. Patton urged the farmers to reduce their indebtedness, put their income back into the farm, improve pastures, combat soil erosion, field drainage, improvement of barn and field layout.

FIFTH WARD TEAM EXTENDS WINNING STREAK TO SEVEN

Take The Measure of The Undeclared Harriman Team in Good Fashion FINAL SCORE IS 57 TO 42

Game Was Closely Played Despite What Score Indicates

The Fifth Ward Sporters extended their winning streak to seven straight games last night as they took the measure of the heretofore undeclared Harriman team on the Mutual Aid court. Final score stood: Fifth Ward, 57; Harriman, 42. The two teams are now deadlocked for the leadership of the Bristol Youth League.

The score disproves the fact that the game was closely played. Until the four-minute whistle sounded in the last stanza, Fifth Ward had but a two-field goal line. But in the stretch with "Flowers" Favorosa leading the attack the Fifth Warders piled up their large advantage.

Close guarding made the game rough and many fouls were called. Favorosa and Holden, of Fifth Ward, and "Ed" Capriotti and John Prakesta, of Harriman, all had four fouls against them when the final gun barked.

The Sporters held a 16-5 lead at the end of the first quarter and Harriman cut this to 26-17 at the half-time mark. The sixth warders shaved the lead to 37-31 at the end of the third period and rallied in the first part of the final session before the Fifth Warders put on their final spurt which netted the thrilling contest.

Favorosa led the winners in scoring with 16 points, three more than "Vince" DiTanna. DiTanna was injured in the first quarter but came back in the second. In the third canto, DiTanna was knocked out but revived in time to get the ball off the backboard several times when Harriman was threatening.

Stan Lelinski did the best playing for the losers, scoring seven field goals and three fouls for 17 points. Both teams fared poorly from the gift line. Fifth Ward making but three out of 11 and Harriman, 6 out of 15.

SPORTSMEN'S BRIEFS

BY JOE ELBERSON

Annual meeting... next Tuesday evening, January 28, the Edgely Rod & Gun Club will hold its big annual meeting in the Headley Manor Fire House.

Election of officers for 1947, an entertainment program, and refreshments are included in the program for the evening.

President Joseph King, Sr., urges all members to be on hand, and also extends a cordial invitation to other interested sportsmen to attend. The meeting will start at eight o'clock.

Rifle tournament... the second annual January smallbore rifle gallery tournament of the Conestoga Rod and Gun Club will be held this Sunday, January 26th, in the club's indoor rifle range at the Richboro Firehouse.

Shooting will start at 10 in the morning. Five matches are scheduled. Any .22 rimfire rifle may be used.

It happens every year about this time... postcards are beginning to arrive from friends who are basking in the Florida sun.

Latest to arrive came this morning from Ed Greenlee, Jr., from Key West, Florida. He says: "You should be here with your rod and reel." (I agree, Ed) "Some mighty fine fishing here and lovely weather, too."

Beagle champs... top honors in the field trials of the Garden State Beagle Club, held at Mt. Laurel, N. J., last Sunday, went to "Franz's Mac," 13-inch dog owned by Edward Bonfrancesco, Pine street, Bristol.

It was an impressive victory for the winner since there were 44 entries in the event.

Another Bristolian, Melvin Daniels, placed fourth in the same trials with his "Keystone Jane."

It might have been fatal... in Monday's Courier there appeared the following little news item on the front page: "BULLET CRASHES PANE—A bullet apparently fired by a reckless gunner crashed through the glass of a kitchen door yesterday at the residence of Russell A. Johnson, Bath Addition."

That story might have had a much more serious ending had there been anyone in the kitchen at the time. Had it struck anyone it would almost certainly have been fatal.

I saw the slug. It wasn't from a .22, but looked very much like one from a high-powered .32. It was the type, most certainly, that never should have been fired anywhere in this vicinity.

Although its origin is unknown it is my guess that it came from somewhere in the "Bristol Sandhole," the tract of land on which are located the Borough's artesian wells. Two small firing ranges have been set up there, but only for supervised use of .22 pistols and rifles, and not for high-powered rifles.

Whoever was so grossly negligent and careless should be prohibited from handling any firearms.

Buckingham Calls Game Off Which Was Booked For Tonight

The Bristol High Bunnies will play a non-league tilt tonight on the home court, meeting the Temple University high school. A preliminary game between the junior varsities of the two schools will be played, starting at 7.30 o'clock.

Coach Fetterman's boys have been beaten but once this season, Trenton Catholic doing the trick by two points, 47-45. The Bunnies have won eight games, five of which were Lower Bucks County League contests. The Bristol team is unbeaten in Lower Bucks competition.

Bristol was originally scheduled to play Buckingham in a league game tonight but the "Bucks" called off the game until February 6th, which means that Bristol will play home on the 4th and 6th of February, and away on the 7th.

Coach Fetterman will have in his starting lineup tonight the following: "Dezzy" DeLise, "Johnny" Pindar, "Jimmy" Sottile, "Al" Burton, and "Easy" Mama. Pindar and DeLise are among the leading scorers of the Lower Bucks conference.
